

NURSE LED MOBILE
OUTREACH
CLINICS IN RURAL FAR NORTH

JO CLARK-FAIRCLOUGH
ALI DANIELSEN

WHO ARE WE?

Jo Clark-Fairclough (Youth Nurse Prescriber) & Alison Danielsen (Nurse Practitioner)

BACKGROUND

+NEWS | In print

Kaitiāia practices close books sending urgent call for help with GP shortage

Cliff Taylor
ctaylor@nzdoctor.co.nz

Wednesday 5 June 2019, 10:13 AM

HEALTH | NEWS

Patients turned away as Northland doctor shortage reaches crisis point

May 19, 2019

HEALTH / INEQUALITY

GP shortage: People travelling hundreds of kms to see doctor

From Checkpoint, 5:06 pm on 15 June 2022

Share this

Katie Todd, Reporter
@Katieodd_NZ

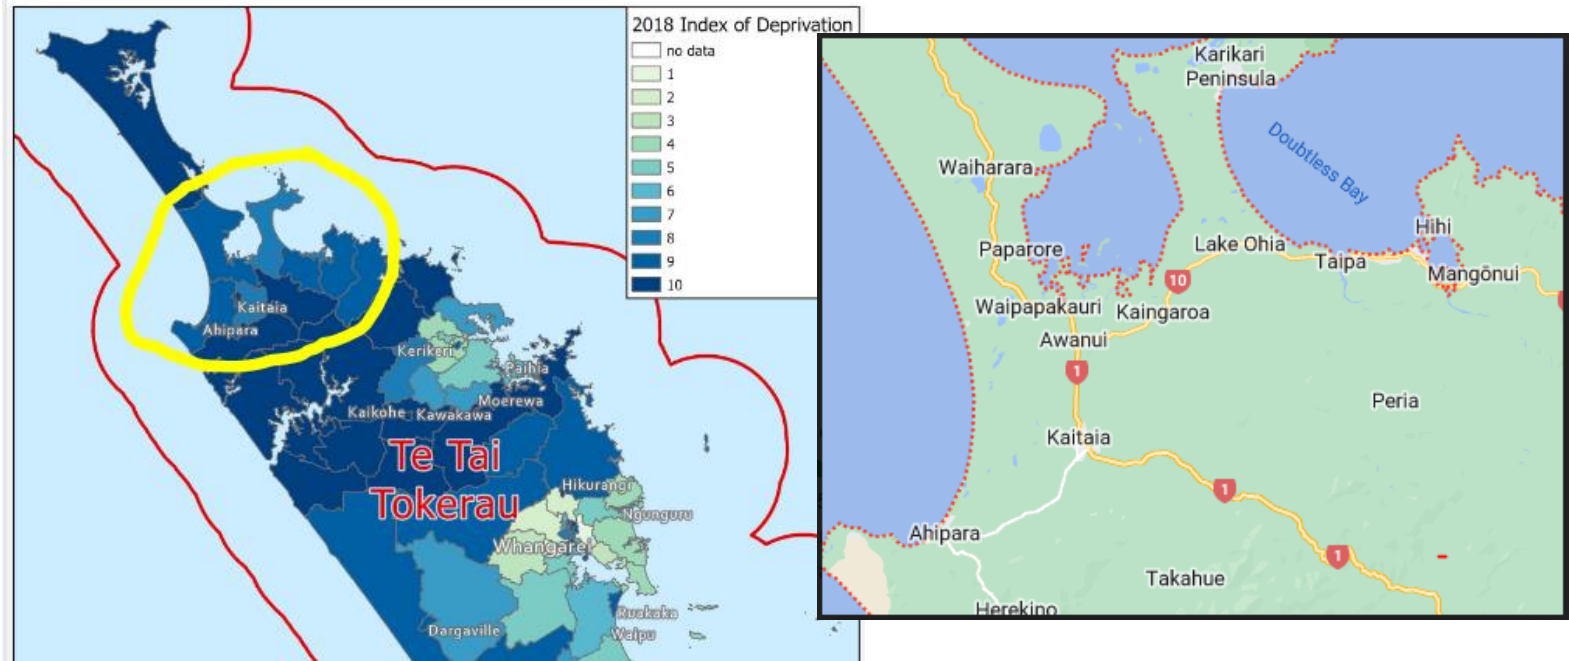

GPs say people are having to travel for hours just to get a 15 minute doctors consult, amid the doctors shortage that has seen about half the country's clinics close their books to new enrolments.

METHODS

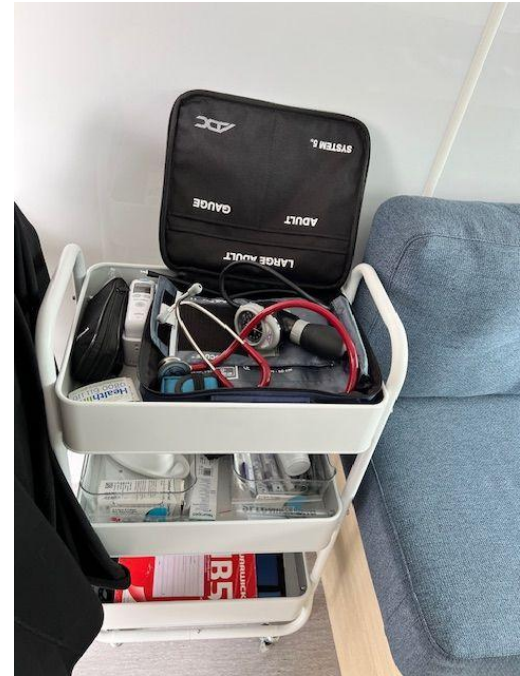

Coverage area

Set up to be mobile:

Set up to deliver hauora:

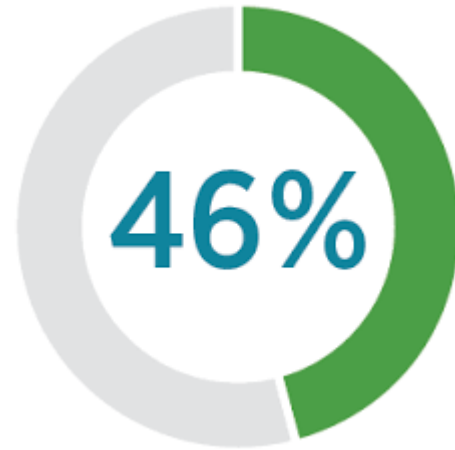

RESULTS

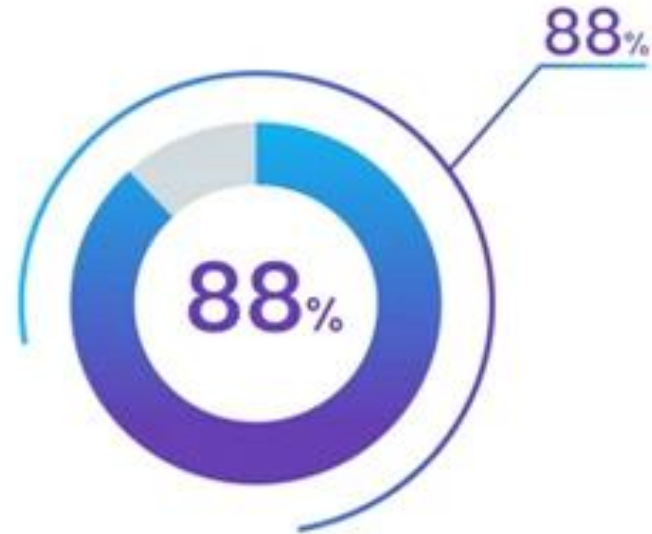

Numbers

No local GP

Numbers

Maori/Pacific

CONCLUSION

PATAI

